4, 2009 the members of the MS State Personnel Board selected Brown as Chairman.

Brown is no stranger to public service. He currently serves as the Warren County Director of the Warren-Yazoo Mental Health Service where he has been employed in various positions for the past 27 years.

Brown brings a host of knowledge of state government from working with several state agencies to include Employment Security Commission and the Department of Human Services.

Brown contributes his time and energy to numerous local, state, and national civic and professional organizations, several in which he serves or has served in leadership roles.

Brown received a Bachelor's degree in Sociology and Social Services from Alcorn State University, a Master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling Services from Jackson State University and has completed postgraduate work in Group Psychotherapy at Mississippi State University.

He is a member of the Locust Grove Missionary Baptist Church where he serves as a deacon. Brown and his wife, Cheryl, have four children.
